

Creating Vigilant, Prepared, and Resilient Communities

An All Hazards Community Approach For Handling Disasters and Significant Events

Presented by the Western Community Policing Institute (WCPI)

Western Oregon University

Sponsored by Sandy City

March 20 and 21, 2008
8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Sandy City Hall Multipurpose Room
10000 Centennial Parkway, Sandy, Utah

Participants will be introduced to the strategies and skills necessary to help them become more effective in creating vigilant, prepared and resilient communities. The course instruction consists of classroom discussion, Problem-Based Learning, hands-on activities, and practical demonstration.

Attendees may include elected city officials, city personnel, first responders, business leaders, school district representatives, community coordinators and neighborhood groups, and anyone interested in improving their disaster-management skills.

There is No Cost For This Course, but Pre-Registration is Required.
Register On-Line by March 10, 2008

www.sandy.utah.gov/wcpi

Call B.L. Smith at 568-7240 or Ken Kraudy at 568-7279 for questions or any additional information.